

Trustee/Entity certification for existing annuity contracts

Use this form when a Trust owns an annuity contract issued by an insurance company listed on this form (the "Company").

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

Things to know before you begin

- This form can also be used to update Trustee information for an existing Trust owner.
- Submit this form along with the applicable paperwork for the transaction you are requesting, to validate the information for the Trust owner.
- New information provided on this form does not change or update information on the annuity contract.
- We will accept changes based on the terms of the contract and the underwriting rules in effect when the original annuity contract was issued. In general, annuities can be owned by:
 - Grantor Trusts;
 - Non-Grantor Trusts;
 - Other Trusts created specifically to benefit living (or natural) persons; and
 - Charitable Remainder Trusts.
- All Entity representative(s) with the power to buy, sell, manage, or transfer annuities on behalf of the Entity must complete and sign this form.
- We will assume (unless otherwise notified in writing) that all Entity representative(s) have the authority to act alone and independently concerning the choices and instructions in this form.
- Do not use this form for an Employee Benefit Trust or a Trust created in a foreign country.

Submit this form along with the Owner/Annuitant change form to change the owner of an annuity contract to a Trust.

To avoid delays, complete and return the entire form including any blank pages.

Definitions

- Trust: a legal Entity that owns assets on behalf of a person who will benefit from the assets in the future.
- Annuity: a financial product in which an owner (e.g. an individual, Trust, or Entity) makes one or more upfront payments to an insurance company. In return, the owner may choose to receive (or designate someone else to receive) a lump sum or series of payments in the future.
- Grantor: a person who creates a Trust and/or transfers assets to the Trust.
- Grantor Trust: a Trust in which the Grantor is taxed on income from the Trust.
- Non-Grantor Trust: a Trust in which the Trust itself is taxed on income from the Trust.
- Charitable Remainder Trust: a Trust in which a non-charitable beneficiary receives income from the Trust for a set amount of time. After that, a charity receives the remainder of the Trust's assets.

SECTION 3: Authorizations, acknowledgements and signatures

The undersigned Entity Representative(s) do hereby certify and affirm the following:

1. All information listed on this form is complete and accurate.
2. I/We agree that the Entity named here is valid, is in good standing under applicable state law and has the power to buy, sell, manage or transfer annuities on behalf of the Entity.
3. If the Entity is a Trust, I/we agree that the Trust is currently valid and was not revoked or changed in a way that would invalidate the information on this form.
4. That to the best of our knowledge, I/we expect the Annuitant to live more than 12 months and that the annuity contract was not purchased simply to benefit from the Annuitant's death.
5. I/We agree that the Company is relying on the accuracy of the information listed on this form and not on information contained in Entity agreements or documents. I/We agree that the Company may rely on this information until receiving written notice of a revocation of the Entity or change in the information provided on this form.
6. I/We are duly authorized to act as representative(s) under the terms of the Entity and/or applicable law. I/We have the power to exercise any right associated with owning an annuity contract including, but not limited to, buying, selling, managing, transferring and withdrawing funds.
7. Nothing of value (e.g., cash payments, gifts, or a share of the annuity contract) was offered to the Annuitant (or anyone acting on their behalf) in exchange for changing the annuity contract's owner. If anything of value has been (or will be) paid, please describe here:

8. That this ownership change is not being made with the intent to sell or transfer the annuity contract (or the rights to its death benefits, income payments or withdrawals) to a life settlement company, investor, investor group, or third party.
9. That this ownership change is not being made with the intent to sell or transfer ownership or beneficial interest in the Entity that owns the annuity contract to a life settlement company, investor, investor group or other third party.
10. I/We understand that changing the owner of this annuity contract to the named Entity may be considered a taxable event.
11. Each of the undersigned, jointly and severally, and as an Entity representative, indemnifies the Company and agrees to hold the Company harmless against all obligations, demands, losses or liabilities (including attorney's fees) that the Company incurred, suffered, or paid, or may incur, suffer or pay in the future because of the Company's reliance on this document and/or transactions or actions by the undersigned. By indemnifying the Company, each of the undersigned, jointly and severally and as an Entity representative, indemnifies the Company's agents, officers and employees. This indemnification shall survive termination of this form, termination of the Entity, or termination of the annuity contract.
12. I/We, on behalf of the Entity, understand that, in general, a non-qualified annuity contract owned by an Entity (e.g., Trust) is not eligible for tax deferral. The only exceptions are: (1) if the Entity is a Grantor Trust within the meaning of section 671 et seq. of the Code or (2) if the Entity representative was acting as a mere agent for an individual who is a beneficiary of the Entity. If an exception does not apply and the Entity is subject to federal income tax, it must include the increase in the annuity contract's value (adjusted for contributions and distributions) in its taxable income each year. In addition, I/we agree that the Company is not responsible for any adverse tax consequences and is not bound by any representations made that the annuity contract owner is holding the annuity contract as an agent for a natural person or that the owner is a Grantor Trust within the meaning of Section 671 et seq. of the Code. However, if the annuity contract owner is a Trust that uses an individual's Social Security number as its tax identification number or is a Grantor Trust within the meaning of section 671 et seq. of the Code, that individual (or person treated as owner of the assets of the Grantor Trust) must be listed as the Annuitant on this form.

13. That the Company will tax report to the named Entity on any annuity contract(s) issued to the Entity.

15. I/We will inform the Company (in writing) of any facts that would affect or change the information on this certification (e.g., entity amendments or representative changes).

14. I/We have had the chance to consult with an attorney before signing this form.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and

(If you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because of under reporting interest or dividends on your tax return, you must cross out and initial this item.)

3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person, and
4. I am not subject to FATCA reporting because I am a U.S. person and the account is located within the United States.

(If you are not a U.S. Citizen or other U.S. person for tax purposes, please cross out the last two certifications and complete appropriate IRS documentation.)

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
