About Risk

Prices of equity securities change in response to many factors, including past and prospective earnings of the issuer, the value of its assets, general economic conditions, investor perceptions, and market liquidity. Foreign investments involve greater risk than U.S. investments, including political changes, currency fluctuations, potentially inadequate legal protection, lack of market information, and low market liquidity.

Glossary of Terms

Alpha Measures the portion of a fund's return that is unrelated to movements in the benchmark. It is calculated over the most recent 36 months of data.

Beta Measures the degree to which a fund's return is affected by movements in the market, represented by the fund's benchmark index. The market is represented as 1.0, so a fund with a beta of 2.0 means that the fund's price moves twice as much as the market, plus or minus the fund's alpha.

Market Cap Calculated by multiplying the market price per share of a company by the number of shares outstanding. Companies are usually grouped into micro, small, mid and large "caps."

P/B Ratio Price-to-book ratio is calculated by dividing the current share price of a stock by its latest quarter's book value per share. Book value is total assets minus intangible assets and liabilities.

P/E Ratio Price-to-earnings ratio is the valuation of a company's current share price compared to its per-share earnings over the most recent 12-month period.

R-Squared Measures the proportion of a fund's performance that is related to its benchmark index. For example, a large-cap equity fund with an  $R^2$  of 86 that is benchmarked to the S&P 500 Index indicates that 86% of the fund's historical behavior can be attributed to movements in the S&P 500.

Sharpe Ratio The ratio of a fund's excess returns to its standard deviation. Measured over a 36-month period.

Standard Deviation Measures the historical volatility of a fund. Funds with higher standard deviation are generally considered to be riskier.
