The returns shown above represent past performance and are not an indication of future performance. The investment experience and the cash surrender value of a policy will fluctuate so that, at the time of a withdrawal, the cash surrender value may be worth more or less than the original investment. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance information shown.

Prospectuses for the underlying investment funds are available from Met Tower Life. The prospectuses contain information about the policies' features, risks, charges and expenses, and the investment objectives, risks and policies of the underlying investment funds, as well as other information about the underlying funding choices. Please read the prospectuses and consider this and other information carefully before investing. Product availability and features may vary by state.

The above returns reflect the mortality and expense risk charge and all fund level investment management fees and expenses. These returns do not reflect premium sales charges, taxes, monthly administration charges, cost of insurance, additional insurance benefit charges, contingent deferred sales charges, or any other charges that may be incurred under the policy. If these charges were to be included, the returns would significantly lower.

A fee waiver or expense limit may be or have been in place for any of the investment options. The reduced expenses that may result from this waiver or limit may increase performance results. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The performance shown may reflect, for some periods described, the management of previous investment managers. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The returns shown above represent past performance and are not an indication of future performance. The investment experience and the cash surrender value of a policy will fluctuate so that, at the time of a withdrawal, the cash surrender value may be worth more or less than the original investment. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance information shown.

Prospectuses for the underlying investment funds are available from Met Tower Life. The prospectuses contain information about the policies' features, risks, charges and expenses, and the investment objectives, risks and policies of the underlying investment funds, as well as other information about the underlying funding choices. Please read the prospectuses and consider this and other information carefully before investing. Product availability and features may vary by state.

Policy values depend not only on the investment performance of the underlying funds, but also on cost of insurance, sales, premium tax, asset, surrender and administrative charges, which are not reflected in these rates of return, but which significantly reduce the return to the policyholder. These returns do reflect the fees and expenses of the underlying funds.

A fee waiver or expense limit may be or have been in place for any of the investment options. The reduced expenses that may result from this waiver or limit may increase performance results. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The performance shown may reflect, for some periods described, the management of previous investment managers. Please see the prospectus for more information.

Prior to March 6, 2017, Brighthouse Funds Trust I was known as Met Investors Series Trust and Brighthouse Funds Trust II was known as Metropolitan Series Fund.

On April 28, 2008, the MFS Research International Portfolio of the Met Investors Series Trust was substituted for the Fidelity VIP Overseas Portfolio of the Variable Insurance Products Fund. Values before April 28, 2008 reflect the performance of the Fidelity VIP Overseas Portfolio since its inception on January 28, 1987.

Effective May 3, 2010, the FI Mid Cap Opportunities Portfolio of the Metropolitan Series Fund, Inc. merged with and into the Morgan Stanley Mid Cap Growth Portfolio of the Met Investors Series Trust. Values before May 3, 2010 reflect the performance of the FI Mid Cap Opportunities Portfolio since its inception on March 3, 1997.

Effective May 2, 2011 the MetLife Aggressive Allocation Portfolio of the Metropolitan Series Fund, Inc. merged with and into the MetLife Aggressive Strategy Portfolio (currently known as MetLife Asset Allocation 100 Portfolio) of the Met Investors Series Trust. Performance before May 2, 2011 reflects the performance of the MetLife Aggressive Allocation Portfolio since its inception on April 30, 2005.

Effective April 30, 2012, the Lord Abbett Mid Cap Value Portfolio of the Metropolitan Series Fund merged into the Lord Abbett Mid Cap Value Portfolio (currently known as Invesco Mid Cap Value Portfolio) of the Met Investors Series Trust. Values before April 30, 2012 reflect the performance of the Lord Abbett Mid Cap Value Portfolio of the Metropolitan Series Fund.

Effective April 30, 2018, the MFS® Value Portfolio II (formerly Blackrock Large Cap Value Portfolio) merged into the MFS® Value Portfolio. Values before April 30, 2018 reflect the performance of the MFS® Value Portfolio II of the Brighthouse Funds Trust II.

Prior to April 29, 2019, the Morgan Stanley Discovery Portfolio was known as the Morgan Stanley Mid Cap Growth Portfolio.

Prior to December 16, 2019, the Loomis Sayles Growth Portfolio was known as the Clearbridge Variable Aggressive Growth Portfolio.

Prior to December 2, 2021, the CBRE Global Real Estate Portfolio was known as the Clarion Global Real Estate Portfolio.

The classification of the above funds in the various asset classes is based upon Met Tower Life's interpretation. Other parties may have different opinions on the classification. It is possible that the funds may not have all of their underlying investments within their classified asset class and may have a significant amount of assets in other asset classes. At any given time, these funds could drift from one asset class to another. We suggest that you read the prospectus for more information on the investment policies of these funds before investing.

The above funds, which generally have the same investment objectives, policies and portfolio managers as the retail funds for which they are named, are separate and distinct from the retail funds. Their performance may be dramatically different from the performance of the retail funds, due to differences in the funds' size, cash flow, expenses and the timing of purchases and sales of securities.

Like most life insurance policies, Met Tower Life policies contain certain exclusions, limitations, exceptions, reductions of benefits, waiting periods and terms for keeping them in force. Please contact a licensed representative for costs and complete details.

The above returns reflect the mortality and expense risk charge and all fund level investment management fees and expenses. These returns do not reflect premium sales charges, taxes, monthly administration charges, cost of insurance, additional insurance benefit charges, contingent deferred sales charges, or any other charges that may be incurred under the policy. If these charges were to be included, the returns would significantly lower.

A fee waiver or expense limit may be or have been in place for any of the investment options. The reduced expenses that may result from this waiver or limit may increase performance results. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The returns shown above represent past performance and are not an indication of future performance. The investment experience and the cash surrender value of a policy will fluctuate so that, at the time of a withdrawal, the cash surrender value may be worth more or less than the original investment. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance information shown.

Prospectuses for the underlying investment funds are available from Met Tower Life. The prospectuses contain information about the policies' features, risks, charges and expenses, and the investment objectives, risks and policies of the underlying investment funds, as well as other information about the underlying funding choices. Please read the prospectuses and consider this and other information carefully before investing. Product availability and features may vary by state.

The above returns reflect the mortality and expense risk charge and all fund level investment management fees and expenses. These returns do not reflect premium sales charges, taxes, monthly administration charges, cost of insurance, additional insurance benefit charges, contingent deferred sales charges, or any other charges that may be incurred under the policy. If these charges were to be included, the returns would significantly lower.

A fee waiver or expense limit may be or have been in place for any of the investment options. The reduced expenses that may result from this waiver or limit may increase performance results. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The performance shown may reflect, for some periods described, the management of previous investment managers. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The classification of the above funds in the various asset classes is based upon Met Tower Life's interpretation. Other parties may have different opinions on the classification. It is possible that the funds may not have all of their underlying investments within their classified asset class and may have a significant amount of assets in other asset classes. At any given time, these funds could drift from one asset class to another. We suggest that you read the prospectus for more information on the investment policies of these funds before investing.

The above funds, which generally have the same investment objectives, policies and portfolio managers as the retail funds for which they are named, are separate and distinct from the retail funds. Their performance may be dramatically different from the performance of the retail funds, due to differences in the funds' size, cash flow, expenses and the timing of purchases and sales of securities.

Like most life insurance policies, Met Tower Life policies contain certain exclusions, limitations, exceptions, reductions of benefits, waiting periods and terms for keeping them in force. Please contact a licensed representative for costs and complete details.

The returns shown above represent past performance and are not an indication of future performance. The investment experience and the cash surrender value of a policy will fluctuate so that, at the time of a withdrawal, the cash surrender value may be worth more or less than the original investment. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance information shown.

Prospectuses for the underlying investment funds are available from Met Tower Life. The prospectuses contain information about the policies' features, risks, charges and expenses, and the investment objectives, risks and policies of the underlying investment funds, as well as other information about the underlying funding choices. Please read the prospectuses and consider this and other information carefully before investing. Product availability and features may vary by state.

The above returns reflect the mortality and expense risk charge and all fund level investment management fees and expenses. These returns do not reflect premium sales charges, taxes, monthly administration charges, cost of insurance, additional insurance benefit charges, contingent deferred sales charges, or any other charges that may be incurred under the policy. If these charges were to be included, the returns would significantly lower.

A fee waiver or expense limit may be or have been in place for any of the investment options. The reduced expenses that may result from this waiver or limit may increase performance results. Please see the prospectus for more information.

The performance shown may reflect, for some periods described, the management of previous investment managers. Please see the prospectus for more information.
