The performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance figures quoted. Performance current to the most recent month-end may be viewed at www.metlife.com. Income payments will fluctuate and total income payments received over time may be worth more or less than their original cost. For Investment Divisions that invest in Portfolios of the underlying Trust that were in existence prior to the Investment Division inception date, these returns have been adjusted to reflect the charges and expenses of the Preference Plus Income Advantage Variable Annuity, as if the contract had existed during the stated period(s), including all Portfolio-level expenses, the Separate Account Charge of 1.25% (1.50% in the American Funds Bond, American Funds Growth, American Funds Growth-Income and American Funds Global Small Capitalization Investment Divisions). Performance shown (after fees and expenses) is the change in annuity unit values for a contract that has a 4% Assumed Investment Return (AIR) from one period to the next and assumes that the change occurred at a steady rate over the time period indicated. No withdrawal charges were imposed. Note, if the optional two year withdrawal rider is elected, all income payments will be less. These figures represent past performance and are not an indication of future performance.

A MetLife investment option may have a name and/or investment objective similar to that of another mutual fund with the same manager. Despite any similarity, the MetLife option is separate and distinct and will not have the same performance. Different performance will result from different investment policies, cash flows, fees, expenses and fund asset sizes. The performance shown may reflect, for some periods described, the management of previous investment managers. Please see the prospectus for more information.

Exchange Traded Funds (ETF) purchases and sales are made on the open market and as such are subject to ordinary commission charges by the Broker/Dealer firm who executes the transaction. Trading throughout the day, the value of an ETF may be more or less than the net asset value of the underlying holdings. Additionally, the spread between the bid and ask prices will cause the price at which you can immediately sell an ETF share you just purchased to be lower than the price you paid for it. There is no guarantee that an ETF will meet the objectives of its underlying portfolio.

MetLife Advisers, LLC is the investment adviser to the MetLife asset allocation portfolios and the American Funds asset allocation portfolios. The investment adviser chooses the underlying funding options for each portfolio and the proportions of each underlying funding option within each portfolio.

While diversification through an asset allocation strategy is a useful technique that can help to manage overall portfolio risk and volatility, there is no certainty or assurance that a diversified portfolio will enhance overall return or outperform one that is not diversified. An investment made according to one of these asset allocation models neither guarantees a profit nor prevents the possibility of loss.

Asset allocation portfolios are "fund of funds" portfolios. Because of this two-tier structure, each asset allocation portfolio bears its own investment management fee and expenses as well as its pro rata share of the management fee and expenses of the underlying portfolios. The Contract Owner may be able to realize lower aggregate expenses by investing directly in the underlying portfolios instead of investing in an asset allocation portfolio. In that case, you would not receive the asset allocation services provided by an investment adviser.
