

Important Notice: The Farmers Insurance Group® has acquired the MetLife Auto & Home® business from MetLife, Inc. As a result of the acquisition, the MetLife family of companies is no longer affiliated with MetLife Auto & Home. Farmers will now be responsible for your policy.

- If you obtained your insurance through an agent, your agent will continue to be your main point of contact and will work with Farmers to service your needs.
- If you obtained your insurance through your workplace and your premium is paid through payroll deduction, this will continue without interruption. MetLife will continue to manage this process with your employer.

If you have questions, please visit www.farmers.com/metpolicy/FAQ/. If you work with an agent and have additional questions, please call your agency.

MetLife Auto & Home is a brand used by Metropolitan Property and Casualty Insurance Company and certain of its affiliates, all with administrative home offices in Warwick, RI.
